- 5) Call to Public – Public comments or concerns may be heard, but no Board Action may occur – Stephanie Rider alleged Board Policy violations by the superintendent, concerns about the lack of curriculum for the flag activity, concerns about the 2nd grade classroom, she hasn't seen any evaluations, subjective grades, and bullying. (Unfortunately, there were no specifics offered.) Christie Rider shared concerns regarding the lack of transparency in hiring, lack of community input, 90-day letters not being shared, attendance fraud, and lost teachers. Athene Lollman was concerned about a vape device and a student having tested positive, she did not have an evaluation, and “we have drugs on campus being used and sold.” Heather Jackson shared concerns written as KEB complaints about a teacher. The KEB was discussed with the teacher by the superintendent, who then directed the teacher to address the KEB complaint and to follow the timelines spelled out in the Policy KEB. Ms. Jackson also discussed her concerns revolving around the Gifted program and her as Director. Nikki Lynch complained that she has not been contacted in the past two weeks. She is certified in Elementary Education and Special Education and would like to work in Young where she has her home. She also shared some concerns related to Policy GBEEA, Conflict of Interest.
